

KUMAR, Ravi

Faculty (Engineering Geology)

Senior Associate Geology & Project Manager, Design Center, SMEC

Ravi Kumar, an engineering geologist with over 12 years of experience, currently leading the geology team of Design Center in SMEC (Snow Mountains Engineering Corporation) based in Gurugram, India. A post-graduate in Geology from Punjab University, Ravi has served Indo-canadian Consultancy services Ltd and JAYPEE group prior to the SMEC, and has been trained by the best geologists in the industry. He is also a life time member of ISRMTT. Specialising in engineering geology with extensive experience in civil projects including highways, railways, tunnels, underground caverns, dams, hydropower projects, bridges, highways in hilly terrain and large excavations in countries like India, Nepal, Afghanistan, Indonesia, UAE, Bhutan, etc. A rich & comprehensive experience in feasibility assessment, detailed project report preparation, detail design consultancy and construction stage of over 70 projects. Profound knowledge of surface geologic mapping and 3D geological/face logging, geological model development, logging of borings, rock coring and trench logging activities.