

Mr. H.L. Arora, Former Director (Technical), THDC India Ltd., has four decades of diverse experience of Water resources and Power Sector (Hydro, Thermal & Wind) in fields of project construction, execution of Underground Works, Dam Safety, Reservoir Management, Quality Assurance, Disaster Management, O&M of Power Plants, Policy making, Regulatory Frameworks and its formulations. He is actively associated in implementation of Major Hydro Projects such as Tehri HPP, Koteshwar HEP etc. from concept to commissioning and O&M of these Power Plants. He is a civil Engineer (Hons) Graduate of 1981 Batch from Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala Punjab. He was associated with International agencies such as Hydro Project Institute (HPI) Moscow and United States Bureau of Reclamation (USBR), and Premier R&D Institutions for continual improvement and professional excellence of organization. He has presented several Technical Publications/Papers as Key note Speaker, author/co-author in National/International Conferences/Seminars and written articles in Technical journals on various topics pertaining to Hydro Sector. He is also Regular Guest Speaker in various educational and Professional institutions e.g. IIT-Roorkee, CBIP, NPTI, PMI- NTPC Noida, CEA, CWC, Power line etc.

Presently he is empanelled as Dam Safety and Construction Supervision Expert by Central Water Commission (CWC) and Independent Director by DPE . He is also member of Dam Safety Review Panel (DSRP) of Damodar Valley Corporation (DVC) Dam and Barrages and Special Invitee in Apex Advisory committee on R&D of THDCIL